

their power to guide and help us thru all the sunshine and the shadow of life? Young people cannot regard too highly the influence of the home. A good home is a priceless heritage; it is a possession more priceless than silver or gold. The blessing implies a responsibility. Can we in justice to ourselves or our homes afford to do the deed that will bring reproach upon that home? Are we not rightfully bound to revere its blessedness and to honor it by pure character?

The influence of a good home asserts not only in the character of which it was a formative factor. It is displayed no less in the deportment of young men and women in society. A respectful manner toward the aged, reverence for all that is sacred, kindness in trifles, graciousness and modesty; for all the traits that make up a complete character one's home is credited. Apart from its being a mark of inferior culture, we should abstain from rudeness for the sake of loyalty to the home which it is our duty to adorn with every grace.

"There are two heavens, both made of love;

The one inconceivable even by the other, so divine it is,

The other far on this side the stars, by men called home."

College Notes

Brother Burnworth filled his regular appointment at Glenford, and Brother Eikenberry at Williamstown, Ohio, over last Sabbath.

The Scientific Society held its regular meeting last week. The class began the reading of Le Conte's "Evolution and Its Relation to Religious Thought."

The Literary Societies will give a joint program Friday evening, November 8. The benefits of work in the Literary Society are not known and appreciated as they should be by all the students.

The meetings of the Students' Volunteer Mission Band are proving especially interesting and helpful. Professor Furry is an enthusiastic and inspiring instructor.

The need of a Y. M. C. A. in the college is being discussed, and steps have been taken toward the organization. The State Secretary of the College Y. M. C. A. has promised to come to Ashland soon and launch the work.

On Sunday evening holy communion was celebrated at the college chapel. Ninety-one partook of the sacred emblems and all felt much strengthened by the service. Brother P. J. Brown conducted the service, and Brethren Furry and Miller gave helpful talks. The fulfilment of the promise, "Happy are ye if ye do them," was realized by all who participated.

Those who attended the Sunday morning services at the chapel enjoyed the privilege of listening to one who for over fifty years has served the Lord in the ministry of the gospel. Elder P. J. Brown, so well known thruout the brotherhood preached a very able sermon from Acts 17:28, "For we also are his offspring." He spoke in his usual forceful and convincing style of the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, and the immortality of the soul. At the close of the service Brother Miller, in a few earnest words of invitation, asked all out of Christ to give their hearts to him, and in response to the invitation one young lady came forward and was baptized in the afternoon.

Immediate Need

We have made appeal after appeal in these columns for contributions either in money or books to the library of Ashland College. There have been some few responses but the books given were not especially adapted to our immediate needs. We need all that were given and many more of them. But just now we have some special needs. The Laboratory has been amply provided for at least for some time. But we must needs have books for our class work. Our Theological students just now are in sore need of books and their work during the year will be seriously hindered if the books are not forthcoming. We need the following now:

Schaff's Church History, complete edition,	$24 00
Kurtz's Church History,	$6 00
Sidgwick's Ethics,	$4 50
Sidgwick's History of Ethics,	$1 50

Is there not some church or some individual in the church sufficiently interested in the future ministry of the church who will furnish us a part or even all these books. We do not object to second-hand books if they are intact. To give this opportunity ought to be sufficient. Brethren, will you not help us whom you have placed in charge of the educational interests of the church? What report shall I make next week concerning this appeal? Shall it not be that the books are provided for?

The well known specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., L. L. B., of Chicago, will send his New Special Treatment free to any of our afflicted readers who will mention this paper.

This liberal offer is for the purpose of demonstrating the great superiority of his new system of Treatments for heart troubles, such as short breath, pain in the side, oppression in the chest, irregular pulse, palpitation, smothering spells, puffing of the ankles or dropsy.

They are the result of twenty-five years of careful study, extensive research, and remarkable experience in treating weak, dilated, hypertrophied, rheumatic, fatty or neuralgic hearts, as each one requires different treatment.

The treatments are carefully selected for each patient, as regards their age, weight, and stage of each kind of heart disease. All afflicted persons should avail themselves of this liberal offer. No death comes more unexpectedly than that from heart disease.

Rev. J. W. Stokesbury, of Fallport, Mo., had head, heart, stomach troubles and nervous prostration. Three physicians failed to help him. He writes: "I regard myself cured."

The eminent Rev. W. Bell, D. D., of Dayton, Ohio, General Secretary of Foreign Missions, writes editorially in The State Sunday School Union: "We desire to state that from personal acquaintance we know Dr Miles to be a most skillful specialist, a man who has spared neither labor nor money to keep himself abreast of the great advancement in medical science."

A thousand references to, and testimonials from, Bishops, Clergymen, Bankers, Farmers, and their wives will be sent free on request. These include many who have been cured after from five to fifteen physicians and professors had pronounced them "incurable." Among them are H. A.
